JAMES P. HICKMAN, SR. San Antonio, Tex., May 12.—(Special.)—James P. Hickman, Sr., aged 72, a well known citizen and large real estate owner, died this morning of paralysis. A large family of children survive him.

LATE RAILROAD. Walnut Springs, Tex., May 12.—(Special.)—For some time past there has been trouble with the management of the Texas Central railroad and its employees. The road has been discharging men without assigning any reason for an doing. Yesterday injunctions were issued for Central railroad and its employees. The road has been discharging men without assigning any reason for an doing. Yesterday injunctions were issued for Central railroad and its employees.

WALNUT SPRINGS SENTIMENT. Walnut Springs, Tex., May 12.—(Special.)—For some time past there has been trouble with the management of the Texas Central railroad and its employees. The road has been discharging men without assigning any reason for an doing. Yesterday injunctions were issued for Central railroad and its employees.

MOBE EXTENSIONS. Jan. 12. Law, general livestock agent of the Rock Island, was in town yesterday. He reports work on the Rock Island getting along nicely, building over a mile of track a day. The shipments of live stock are being handled via the Fort Worth and Denver, are steadily increasing. Spooling of the enterprise of the road Mr. Law says the next step will be a division extending from Chickasha through the country to the north and south with the Denver road 140 miles distant.

HOUSTON ROADS. Houston, Tex., May 12.—(Special.)—Tomorrow the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway will begin running passenger trains into Houston. A double daily service will be maintained. The new line will be to be put on.

SPRING LAKE, MICH. BURNED. Detroit, Mich., May 11.—A special says one-half of Spring Lake, a village of Grand river, was destroyed by fire. The village has five churches, a graded public school, a library and several saw mills. Many families were rendered homeless. Loss, $100,000; insurance unknown.

AT PITTSBURGH. Pittsburgh, Pa., May 12.—(Special.)—Sixty-story Pennsylvania Building, a three-story building adjoining was completely destroyed by fire this morning. The fire is supposed to have been the work of incendiaries. Loss, $150,000; insurance, $100,000.

JOHN MCGAUGHEY BACK. Austin, Tex., May 12.—(Special.)—Commissioner McGaughey has returned to his old job, to the chief clerkship of the school land department, from which he was removed as a consequence of the re-organizational proceedings. Lawyers Ross and Ben Hughes have been promoted to the department of correspondence in the land office.

By a clerical error in circulating the general appropriation bill it is found that the salary of examining draughtsmen in the land office was left out of the bill. This is one of the most important and necessary clerkships in the department and it is not yet known how the oversight will be remedied.

THE MARKETS.

Spot Cotton Lower to Unchanged in Price.

FUTURES GENERALLY LOWER.

Wheat Scores a Full Cent Advance, and the Cereal Outlook is Bright on This Side—Sugar and Coffee Firm.

GLENNY & CO. New Orleans, La., May 12.—Glenny & Co. say:

Liverpool futures closed 5-64 lower. Disappointments in opening at Liverpool caused American markets to open easy at 8 to 9 points decline here and New York, at which decline the price, however, remained steady. The decline at Liverpool is attributed to the tight market and the unsettled state of affairs on this side. The market here has been very quiet, with little trading.

ST. LOUIS PRODUCE. St. Louis, Mo., May 12.—Wheat—Receipts, 23,466,000; flour, 23,456,000; 3.25; rye, 2,709,235; others unchanged.

CHICAGO PRODUCE. Chicago, Ill., May 12.—Wheat—Advances today about 1 cent, chiefly on buying to get back holdings and yesterday. The financial situation appeared less threatening and earlier reported serious drought in Kansas and Nebraska. Shipments from field first arrived yesterday, but very generally unimproved, was partially continued today, and it was no longer doubted that it would be to improve wheat on a much larger scale than usual. The result of all this was to stimulate buying, both in cover shorts and for investment.

THE GAZETTE MACHINE. What Those Who Have Used It Say of the Cheapest Machine in the Market. First-Class in Every Particular. Greenville, August 28, 1892. To the Democrat Publishing Co. I received your Gazette machine, and will say to you that we are more than pleased with it. I find it in good order, clean in every particular. My wife and I like it to be a first-class machine to tell you that she don't think hard of you about the delay; she is so well satisfied with it, and would give it up for any other machine. We wish you long life and great success. Yours for the Democrat and three cheers for the Democrat publishing company, of Fort Worth, Texas. I am your ever, and carry the glad tidings of that noble machine to the glad hearts of those who have not all I have said in my paper if you like. Yours truly, E. J. JOHNSON. Greenville, Hunt county, Texas.

As Good as Any 500 Machine. Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 28, 1892. Editor of Gazette: Allow me to say in behalf of the Gazette machine, that I have had one in constant use for the past eighteen months and during that time it has done the best of work, and proved itself as good as any 500 machine. Wishing you much success, as you can safely recommend it. Very respectfully, M. FARRELL. Higher Pleased. Crawford, Tex., Oct. 17, 1892. Gentlemen: Your recent Gazette sewing machine received yesterday, I have tested it very thoroughly. It runs light and does the work well. Respectfully, HURAN D. BURKA.

A FIRST CLASS MACHINE. Gothic, King county, Tex., Feb. 15, 1893. To The Gazette: Dear Sir: I received The Gazette machine, all right side up with care, and am pleased to say my wife thinks it one of the best machines she has ever used. I would advise all wanting a first-class sewing machine to send for The Gazette. Yours truly, E. W. SLOAN.
